Return Policy: We stand behind all products we sell. In the event that you are unsatisfied with your order, you may return part of or the whole order within 30 days of the delivery date. We return only unworn/unwashed items. Refunds will be given in the form of store credit minus the original shipping amount. Because every one of our shirts are made-to-order, we are no longer able to exchange or issue cash or credit card refunds.

If a returned item appears to be washed or worn, we will ship the items back to you and will not issue credit.

Disclaimer: You are responsible for getting your package back to us. In the event that your return is not delivered to us, you will have to file a claim with your shipper. It is best that you use a traceable shipping method when shipping your order back to us.
